

Super Stars

HM2 Jill Bankus, Emergency Medicine Department, is presented her third Good Conduct Medal.

CSSN Rachel Kaiser, Nutrition Management Department, receives a Letter of Commendation for her work on the 2006 Navy Birthday Ball Committee.

HA Patrick Jackson, Adult Medical Care Clinic, is presented with a Letter of Appreciation for his volunteer work at the Twentynine Palms Elementary School.

Seaman Apprentice Lindsay Russell, receives a Letter of Appreciation for her work on the 2006 Navy Birthday Ball Committee.

The following personnel have been frocked to their current rank... they are listed in no particular order: HM2 Emery; HM3 Bisson; HM3 Booher; HM3 Casler; CS3 Dominquez; HM3 Escobar; HM3 Gonzales; Hm3 O'Connell; HM3 Ogumoro; HM3 Segun and HM3 Thomas.

Dave Saeva, SAD, presents a check for $1,000.00 to the China Lake Navy-Marine Corps Relief Society on December 4. From left to right are CDR Tom Driver, China Lake Clinic OIC; Dave Saeva; Brenda Autobee-Bigalk, Chairman of Volunteers; and CAPT Mark Boman, Commanding Officer, Naval Hospital Twentynine Palms.

HN Matt Gannon, Multi-Service Ward, received a Letter of Appreciation for his volunteer work at the Twentynine Palms Elementary School.

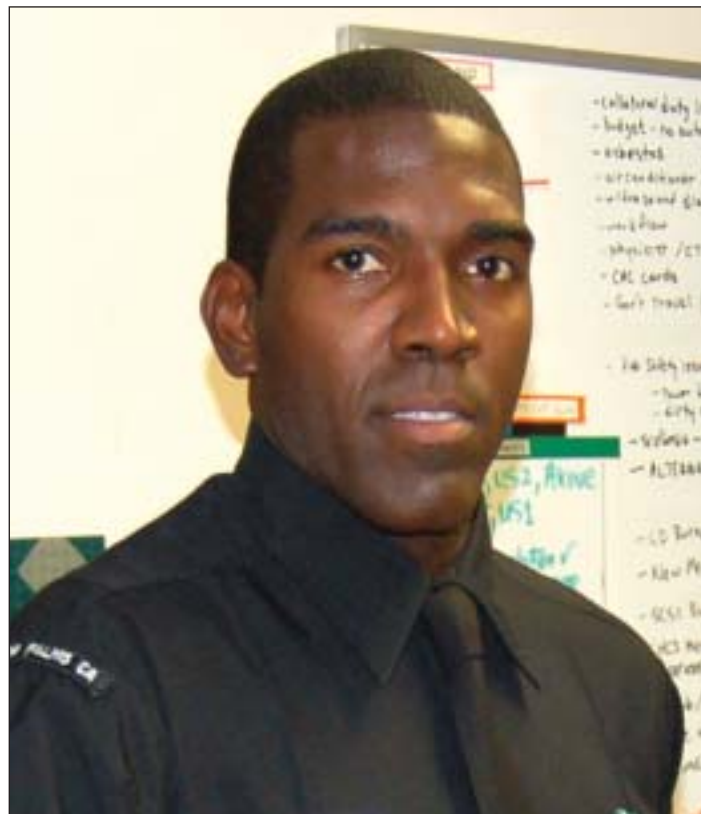

HN Robert Stone, Pharmacy Department, received a Letter of Appreciation for his work with the Combat Center's Sergeants Course.

LCDR Ann Case, Surgical Suite, received a 3-6-9 Certificate after completing running 300 miles.

Vanessa Renfroe a Red Cross Volunteer in the Family Practice Clinic received special recognition and an Honorable Desert Rat Certificate upon her departure from the Naval Hospital to accept a new job.

HM2 Dempsey Tomblin, Radiology Department, received a Navy and Marine Corps Commendation Medal upon his departure from the Naval Hospital on PSC orders.

HM1 Ubaldo Llanos, Education and Training Department accepts the National Ensign during the flag ceremony at his recent retirement ceremony. Petty Officer Llanos served the United States Navy honorably for 20years.

Continued on page 8

Super Stars

Continued from page 5

CS1 (SW) Mario Reyes, Nutrition Services Department, receives a Letter of Appreciation for his volunteer work on the 2006 Navy Birthday Ball Committee.

HM2 Amy Hendrick, Pharmacy Department, receives a Letter of Commendation for her work on the 2006 Navy Birthday Ball Committee.

HM3 Jared Chiaia, Adult Medical Care Clinic, receives a Letter of Appreciation from the Twentynine Palms Elementary School for his volunteer work there.

HM3 Dorian Rodriguez, Patient Administration Department, receives a Letter of Appreciation for her volunteer work on the 2006 Navy Birthday Ball Committee.

Ms. Judy Hughes, Health Care Operations, receives a 20-year Federal Length of Service Award